

Dear Valued Customers of Rocky Point Technology Group,

I am writing to inform you of an exciting development that has recently taken place within our organization. I have decided to sell our business to Integrated Axis Technology Group Inc, a leading managed service provider in the industry. This decision was not taken lightly, but I am confident that it will result in improved service and support for your business IT needs.

Integrated Axis Technology Group Inc has been in business for over 20 years and is employee-owned, which means that they take pride in their work and are committed to providing the highest quality service to their customers. Their team of 35 employees is made up of experienced professionals who have the knowledge and skills to provide you with the IT solutions you need to succeed.

I understand that change can be unsettling, but I assure you, Derek and I will be staying on and involved in the transition process. There will be no changes to your agreement and this decision to sell the business was made with your best interests in mind. I believe that Integrated Axis Technology Group Inc will be able to offer you and your business incredible service and support.

I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your loyalty and support over the years. It has been a pleasure serving you, and we hope that you will continue to trust us to provide you with the exceptional service you have come to expect.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us. I will do everything to ensure a smooth transition and to make sure that your business IT needs are taken care of with the upmost respect, and you continue to receive the highest quality of service.

Thank you again for your trust and loyalty. We look forward to continuing to serve you in the future.

Sincerely,

Andrew
